On March 18, 1999, DEA Agents and Task Force Officers received information from the Laredo Police Department Narcotics Division, pertaining to suspicious behavior being conducted by the persons living at 205 Huisache. Acting on the said information, DEA initiated contact with the occupants at that residence. DEA Agents and Task Force Officers of the DEA Laredo Office obtained written consent to search the residence of Jose Antonio ZEPEDA-Martinez, to wit: 205 Huisache, Laredo, TX. During the search of the residence Agents discovered approximately 223.17 kilograms of cocaine contained in 221 individually wrapped bundles, as a result of the discovery, Agents seized the cocaine and arrested the three occupants of the residence. Furthermore, Agents subsequently seized approximately $500, 000 dollars in U.S. Currency from a second consensual search given for 8801 McPherson #4E, Laredo, TX. Agents transported the cocaine, money and the three defendants to the DEA Office for further processing. The defendants in this case were eventually remanded to the Webb Co. Jail.
